International Center of Photography, School of Visual Arts, The Art Students League and New York Academy of Art. Cesarine had her first solo show at the age of sixteen at Paul Mellon Arts Center. Empowering feminist themes are often the point of departure for Cesarine's multi-sensory series. Her artwork questions the place of humanity in context with contemporary civilization and is often influenced by autobiographical content and women's history at large. As a multi-disciplinarian artist she works across several mediums and techniques to convey a rich and diverse narrative, with an emphasis on thematic subject matter that engages a narrative of social discourse and art activism.

Her artwork has been featured internationally at many galleries, museums and festivals, including The Metropolitan Museum of Art, Mattatuck Museum, San Luis Obispo Museum, CICA Museum, Getty Images Gallery, French Embassy Cultural Center, Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego, Art Basel Miami, Cannes Film Festival and the International Festival Photo Mode to name a few. In 2014, her public art sculpture, "The Egg of Light" was exhibited at Rockefeller Center as part of the Fabergé Big Egg Hunt. Her work was auctioned at Sotheby's New York for the annual "Take Home A Nude" art benefits in 2017 and 2018, and was recently featured at SPRING/BREAK Art Show 2018 as well as SCOPE Basel. Born in Sioux City, Iowa, Cesarine currently lives and works in Tribeca, New York.

Artwork by Fahren Feingold

Watercolor artist Fahren Feingold brings an ethereal state to her unique paintings depicting the female form. Her watercolors featuring bold feminine nudes reference imagery from early 20th century French erotica, 70s & 80s American vintage magazines, and today's Internet girls. The Los Angeles native moved to New York at the age of seventeen to study at the Parsons School of Design. After earning her BFA between Parsons and Glasgow School of Art, she worked as a fashion designer for top brands including Ralph Lauren, Nicole Miller and J.Crew, among others. In 2016, her dreamy watercolors caught the eye of the legendary Nick Knight, who commissioned her to illustrate Paris Fashion Week for SHOWstudio.

Touted as "a trailblazing artist on a meteoric rise" by Vogue, her watercolors have steadily gained recognition from collectors and critics alike for their sensitive, dreamlike colors, graceful brush strokes and rendition of the female nude. Through her erotic depictions, Feingold gives new voices to women of the past and present while exploring larger notions of female constructs in today's society.

Artwork by Fahren Feingold

Her work has been featured in numerous international exhibitions including SHOWStudio's "Moving Kate" curated by Nick Knight, "The Vulgar" at The Barbican, London curated by Judith Clark and Adam Phillips, "Red Hot Wicked" at Studio C Gallery in Los Angeles, as well as The Untitled Space group shows "UPRISE / ANGRY WOMEN" "SECRET GARDEN" and "ONE YEAR OF RESISTANCE" curated by Indira Cesarine and "LIFEFORCE" curated by Kelsey and Remy Bennett. Her work was featured in a solo exhibition at The Untitled Space in 2017, and was also recently featured in the gallery's Special Project, "HOTEL (XX)" at Spring/Break Art Show, as well as in a summer solo exhibition, "The Peep Show" presented by The Untitled Space in collaboration with brand Fleur Du Mal in New York City.

ABOUT THE UNTITLED SPACE

The Untitled Space is an art gallery located in Tribeca, New York in a landmark building on Lispenard Street. Founded in 2014 by artist Indira Cesarine, the gallery features an ongoing curation of exhibits featuring emerging and established contemporary artists exploring conceptual framework and boundary-pushing ideology through the mediums of painting, sculpture, printmaking, photography, video and performance art. The gallery is committed to exploring radical ideas vis-à-vis traditional and new mediums and highlights a program of Women in Art as well as special events aligned with its creative vision. Recent press on The Untitled Space includes Vogue, CNN, Forbes, Newsweek, W Magazine, Harper's Bazaar, Teen Vogue, New York Magazine, i-D Magazine, Dazed and Confused and The Huffington Post among many others.

ABOUT ARHELIX + SHIM

ArtHelix, located in Bushwick, Brooklyn, presents solo and group art exhibitions and hosts lectures, symposia, and other cultural events. ArtHelix creates a meta-art space where art is not only displayed and offered for sale, but also where it can be openly discussed and challenged, a hub or "helix" from which culture can be re-imagined.

SHIM is a full service arts management company that helps artists present professional quality exhibitions by and for themselves without gallery commissions or lease. SHIM's flagship location exists within ArtHelix gallery in Bushwick, Brooklyn.
