NY, NY 10012

The Untitled Space is pleased to participate at Superfine! Art Fair 2019, opening on May 1st in New York City. Superfine! Art Fair brings a new look and location to its 2019 show, leaving the Meatpacking district and re-launching at 107 Grand Street in Soho from May 1-5th. The Untitled Space gallery will be presenting the works of 6 female artists revolving around the theme of "The Female Gaze on Love, Lust and Longing." Exhibiting artists include Annika Connor, Cabell Molina, Fahren Feingold, Indira Cesarine, Sarah Maple and Tina Maria Elena Bak.

"The Untitled Space is looking forward to exhibiting at Superfine! this May. We believe it is important to support art fairs that emphasize artist self-activation. As the art world progresses into the digital era, artists are becoming more self-sufficient. Superfine! is one of the few art fairs that has a platform for artists to exhibit and sell their works direct to collectors. As an artist-owned gallery, we believe in supporting the new wave of emerging artists and art fairs." – Indira Cesarine, The Untitled Space founder participating in numerous national and international exhibitions. Connor currently resides in Brooklyn, where she maintains an active studio. In addition to her work in the studio, Connor is also a SAGAFTRA actress. She is heavily involved in sustaining the art community in which she creates. As a supporter of the art she admires, Connor is the Owner/President of Active Idea Productions, an arts organization whose mission is to serve the artistic community by facilitating the presence and publication of young talented artists and educating the public about their work. She has had her own solo exhibition at The Untitled Space and has shown in The Untitled Space group shows "HUMAN/NATURE", "THE 'F' WORD: Feminism in Art", "IN THE RAW: The Female Gaze on The Nude", "UPRISE", "SHE INSPIRES", "SECRET GARDEN", and "ONE YEAR OF RESISTANCE."

Cabell Molina

Formerly an art director, Cabell Molina worked for multinational advertising agencies in cities all over the world. Molina studied fine art and design at the Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, California. She uses her background in photo manipulation, type design and art direction to create powerful, large scale fine art and pop art pieces. Her work has been in shows and private collections in all over the world. In 2016, she was admitted to the Saatchi Art Curators Choice Pop Art Collection. Since 2017, Molina has been represented by The Untitled Space Gallery in New York City. She works on commissions and conceptual commissioned portraits, and serves as founder/owner of LOVE ART Gallery and Studio in South Norwalk, CT with a focus on pop and street art. Her work has been in shows and private collections around the world. Recent exhibitions with The Untitled Space include "ONE YEAR OF RESISTANCE", "SECRET GARDEN", and "SHE INSPIRES".

Fahren Feingold

Watercolor artist Fahren Feingold brings an ethereal state to her unique paintings depicting the female form. Her watercolors featuring bold feminine nudes reference imagery from early 20th century French erotica, 70s & 80s American vintage magazines, and today's Internet girls. The Los Angeles native moved to New York at the age of seventeen to study at the Parsons School of Design. After earning her BFA between Parsons and Glasgow School of Art, she worked as a fashion designer for top brands including Ralph Lauren, Nicole Miller and J.Crew, among others. In 2016, her dreamy watercolors caught the eye of the legendary Nick Knight, who commissioned her to illustrate Paris Fashion Week for SHOWStudio. Between 2016 and 2017, her work has been featured in numerous international exhibitions including "Moving Kate" curated by Nick Knight at SHOWStudio in London and The Mass in Tokyo, Japan, "The Vulgar" at The Barbican in London curated by Judith Clark and Adam Phillips, "Red Hot Wicked" at Studio C Gallery in Los Angeles, as well as The Untitled Space group shows "UPRISE / ANGRY WOMEN" "SECRET GARDEN" and "ONE YEAR OF RESISTANCE" curated by Indira Cesarine and "LIFEFORCE" curated by Kelsey and Remy Bennett. Touted as "a trailblazing artist on a meteoric rise" by Vogue, her watercolors have steadily gained recognition from collectors and critics alike for their sensitive, dreamlike colors, graceful brush strokes and rendition of the female nude. Through her erotic depictions, Feingold gives new voices to women of the past and present while exploring larger notions of female constructs in today's society. Her work was recently exhibited in "EDEN" at Spring/Break Art Show 2019 and was featured at SCOPE Miami and AQUA Art Shows, 2018 as well as "(Hotel) XX" at Spring/Break Art Show 2018.
